

What have we been learning in Early Years this week?

17th -21st May 2021

Please remember to send us any WOW moments to eyfs@perryhallmat.co.uk so we can share them with the children!

In Early Years, one of our Characteristics of Effective Learning is 'Creating and Thinking Critically' and under that comes 'Having their own ideas'. The children in our setting are getting more and more confident to try their own ideas, and even say "Look I've had my own idea!" and we couldn't be more proud of them for that. Here is a fantastic example of a campfire made in our mud kitchen this week which prompted lots of imaginative play!

All children now have Numbots logins which can be found in their book bags either on the Numbots letter or stuck in the children's reading diaries. We can see more of you have been on this week which is fantastic!

Well done to this weeks winner Jaxon! And to second and third place, Macey and Mylo!

It is great to hear that the children are enjoying it!

Read Write Inc

This week we have sent home sounds relevant to your child's current phonics group and high frequency words to practise - please do let us know how the children get on in their reading diaries and we can send more challenging ones home when they are ready!

Miss Thornton's sounds this week: u, f, e

Please continue to practise Fred Talking at home, here is a video link to a Fred talk game:

Talk for Writing

You will find our Talk for Writing script and story map below. See if your child can have a go at retelling the story of Jack and the Beanstalk to you! This week we have been reinventing the story, we have changed characters and settings. See our changes below:

Jack - Astronaut Giant - Giant Old Lady Tower - Castle

Golden Hen - Shiny Golden Dog

Next week...

RWI	Mathematics	Provision
Miss Thornton's Group will be focusing on l, h, r Miss Hazelton's Group will continue to recap special friends and will bring home a red book. Mrs Holmes Group will be recapping the sounds listed above and reading pink books.	Next week we are revisiting Number. We will be looking at how the children have retained number recognition to 20 as well as one more and one less.	Next week we will be introducing Helicopter stories. Now that the children have been innovating Jack and the Beanstalk, we are going to invent our own stories and act them out as a group! We can't wait to make some whole class stories. Please send a photo of your child as a baby to eyfs@perryhallmat.co.uk to form part of our fabulous finish of our growth topic next week!

Jack and the Beanstalk

(Red words are words we are focusing on to develop language)

Once upon a time, a poor boy named Jack and his mother lived in a wonky old cottage.

One day, Jack's mother said "Go and sell the cow at the market"

Jack sold the cow to a strange man who gave Jack 5 magic beans, Jack was very excited and ran all the way back to his wonky old cottage.

But, when he got home his mother was furious! "We need money! Not beans!" and she threw them out of the window.

The next morning, Jack looked out of his window and saw an enormous beanstalk!

Jack climbed, and climbed, and climbed until he reached the very top.

Once he had reached the top, Jack looked around and saw a magnificent castle!

Jack tap, tap, tapped on the door and tiptoed inside.

Inside Jack saw a giant table, with a marvellous feast, he was feeling hungry, so he started to eat the food but suddenly, BOOM BOOM BOOM the room began to shake.

Jack quickly hid under a large teacup.

Then, in stomped a big, hungry giant "FEE FI FO FUM I SMELL THE BLOOD OF AN ENGLISH MAN"

The giant sat down on the chair with an almighty THUD and started eating his feast.

Jack trembled, he tiptoed out of the teacup, climbed down the table and ran down the hall.

On his way, he saw a hen with golden feathers!

Jack scooped up the hen and continued running towards the beanstalk.

He ran, and ran, and ran but suddenly BOOM BOOM BOOM the giant was following him!

"FEE FI FO FUM I SMELL THE BLOOD OF AN ENGLISH MAN"

Jack jumped and slid down the beanstalk all the way to the bottom.

"Quick, get the axe!" He shouted.

CHOP, CHOP, CHOP the beanstalk and the giant fell down with an almighty CRASH.

"That was close" said Jack.

Jack's mother was very pleased with the golden hen, who laid golden eggs!

Jack and his mother sold the golden eggs and patched up their old wonky cottage and lived happily ever after.

The End.

Jack and the Beanstalk
