We introduced our new Talk for Writing text this week which is Handa's Surprise. Linking to this text we made fruit kebabs! We were safe as we used knives to cut the fruit in half and into chunks, linking to our Maths learning. We were all very grown up as we tried all pieces of fruits - even ones we thought we didn't like. Pineapple was surprisingly a favourite choice! You can see our new Talk for Writing script below!

All children now have Numbots logins which can be found in their book bags either on the Numbots letter or stuck in the children's reading diaries. We can see more of you have been on over half term which is fantastic!

Well done to this weeks winner Jaxon! And to second and third place, Macey and Eloise!

Year 1 preparation

We have started to get ready for Year 1 by doing some of our learning as whole class instead of in small groups. The children have really impressed us this week, especially with some fantastic independent writing and we couldn't be more proud! Well done Reception!

Handa's Surprise

One scorching hot day, Handa put seven delicious fruits into her basket for her friend Akeyo.

'She will be so surprised!' Thought Handa as she set off on the long journey to Akeyo's village.

'I wonder which fruit she will like the best?' thought Handa 'Maybe the soft yellow banana?'

But, as Handa was walking, a sneaky monkey took the soft yellow banana out of the basket. Handa, didn't know.

'Or maybe, the sweet smelling guava'

But then, an ostrich with a tall neck pinched the sweet smelling guava out of the basket. Handa, didn't know.

'Or maybe, a round juicy orange'

But then, a zebra snuck out of the long grass and took the round juicy orange. Handa, didn't know.

'Or maybe, the ripe, red mango?'

But then, a big, huge elephant used his trunk to take the ripe red mango out of the basket. Handa, didn't know.

'Maybe she will like the spikey-leaved pineapple!'

But then, a tall giraffe took the spikey- leaved pineapple from the basket. Handa, didn't know.

'Maybe the creamy , green avacado'

But then, a gazelle leaped, and took the creamy, green avocado from the basket. Handa, didn't know.

'Or maybe the tangy purple passion fruit'

But then, a parrot swept from the tree and swiped the tangy purple passion fruit. Handa, didn't know.

As Handa was walking, the gazelle ran head first into an tangerine tree, and all of the tangerines fell into Handa's basket.

'Which fruit will Akeyo like best?' she thought.

Finally, she arrived at Akeyo's village 'Hello Akeyo! I've brought you a surprise!'

'Tangerines!' said Akeyo 'My favourite fruit!'

'Tangerines?' said Handa, puzzled. 'That is a surprise!'

Handa and Akeyo enjoyed some tangerines together in the hot sun.
